The What Works Book Series—Solid Choices In Unstable Times.

In just a few short years, author/speaker, Shane Idleman, has written a compelling, biblically-based book series, and has obtained quotes from such noted pastors as Jack Hayford, D. James Kennedy, Mike MacIntosh, Dr. Peter Lillback, and Raul Ries, and from organizations such as the National Academy of Sports Medicine, Promise Keepers, American Family Association, and Family Research Council.

What makes this story so inspiring is that Idleman had a promising career as a Corporate Executive, but he left it behind to follow a dream that God placed in his heart after he recommitted his life to Christ. In his words: “While I had focused on prosperity, wealth, and success, I had starved my soul. I tried everything that the world had to offer, but ultimately, I found that it offered little of lasting value.” When asked why he thought that his books are being so well received, he added: “The overwhelming response simply reflects the need that we all have for the truths found in God’s Word.”

Shane’s ministry has sparked change in the lives of many. He’s calling families, marriages, and the country back to the biblical principles that once made America prized among nations. His bold stance has led to speaking engagements at some of the largest churches in the nation.

Book #3: What Works for Men

“A book not just of words but action...May you be re-awakened to the insights of God and His Power in your life.”

—Rod Readhead; CEO Promise Keepers UK

“...Excellent resource for those who truly want to change from the inside out.” —Dr. Donald E. Wildmon,

SHANE IDLEMAN’S PASSION FOR GOD’S Word may well have been planted nearly 400 years ago when the Pilgrims first set foot on American soil. Interestingly enough, Shane’s maternal lineage can be traced to Peregrine White, the first baby born on the Mayflower in Cape Cod Bay. As the Mayflower Compact was signed, it’s not unreasonable to believe that the signers committed America to God’s guidance, and asked that their children and grandchildren would carry biblical principles into each generation. Shane not only believes that his passion may be in answer to that prayer spoken in the early hours of America’s history, but he also believes that the spiritual baton is to pass from one generation to the next.

Today, as we continually drift away in a current of moral decline, many believe that the battle is too advanced and that we cannot make a difference. Shane, however, believes that we can, and offers his books as contributions to that commitment. He stresses: “Although a strong foundation will cost this nation something, a weak foundation may cost us everything. This battle is for the very soul of our nation. It’s our choice—do we stand or fall?”
